RIVERSIDE

LETTER FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Graduating Highlanders:

Congratulations on your graduation from the University of California, Riverside! On behalf of the entire Highlander community, we are both proud and excited as you embark on the next chapter of your life.

Your class will forever have the distinction of graduating during a historic time. You persisted and earned your degree despite challenges. This is a milestone to enjoy and savor, to celebrate with friends and family, today or in the months to come.

Living during a pandemic adds meaning to the ideas of community and interconnectedness. As you reflect on your accomplishments, I hope you will also take time to thank those who supported you on the path to your degree. I hope, too, that you will consider the educational and personal experiences that have been significant to you during your years at UCR and carry them with you into the future.

Each of you has left your mark on this great campus. We hope you will always maintain your connection to your alma mater, staying in touch with fellow alumni and mentors, and returning whenever you can.

Congratulations, Class of 2021!

Sincerely,

KIM A. WILCOX

Chancellor

CONGRATULATIONS FROM THE UCR ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Now is an extraordinary time in our history, and our newest graduates' resilience makes us proud to be Highlanders! As newly minted alumni, you will forever remain part of the institution Money magazine called the most transformative public university in the country and enjoy the benefits of a robust network of more than 126,000 alumni. We welcome the classes of 2021 and 2020 to this dynamic, fast-growing family of ambitious, talented, successful alumni. Our UCR ranks include a Nobel laureate and a two-time Pulitzer Prize winner. Our alumni are trailblazers in their field, including the first woman to serve as director of the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History and the first African American woman to lead a major U.S. zoo.

The UCR Alumni Association (UCRAA) provides programming and events for alumni to meet and network with others in various professions and communities. There are opportunities to get involved with other Highlanders in your area or those with similar backgrounds. You can also reconnect with the campus and current students through mentorship, volunteerism, and philanthropy. With an annual or lifetime UCRAA membership, you can access exclusive discounts and services, career resources, travel programs, and more. Wherever you go in life, we encourage you to maintain strong ties with your alma mater. We invite you to begin by joining the UCR Career Network at careernetwork.ucr.edu, signing up for the UCR Alumni Association at alumni.ucr.edu/join, and visiting alumni.ucr.edu.

UC Riverside has continued its trajectory as a university on the rise, powered by an entrepreneurial spirit, a record of innovation and results, and a commitment to excellence and collaboration across disciplines. We are a diverse, inclusive, globally focused community that reflects California's many cultures and perspectives. We are creating a new model for what a great public research university can do in the world. Our alumni help make this possible, and we cannot wait to see what our newest graduates accomplish along their journey!

Dean's Closing Remarks

UCR – THE YEAR IN REVIEW

As Chancellor Wilcox has said to students, “You haven’t come to the University of California, Riverside, you have become part of the University of California, Riverside.” Today, we celebrate UC Riverside graduates, the new alumni who are now part of a proud Highlander legacy. There are more than 126,000 alumni of this campus living and working in just about every place you can imagine. They know that UCR and its students, faculty, and staff members are affecting the world through their teaching, research, and public service. Below is just a partial list of this community’s accomplishments during 2020-2021.

MILESTONES

- For residential students and faculty and staff working on campus, a cross-functional team created and opened UCR’s own COVID-19 testing lab, testing at a rate of about 600 samples a day.
- After two years of construction, work finished on the Dundee Residence Hall and Glasgow Residential Restaurant and they opened their doors to students.
- A two-year renovation of The Barn, development of the UCR School of Medicine Center for Simulated Patient Care, and a new Plant Research facility were a few of the other construction projects that were finished.
- ExCITE, the startup incubator led by UC Riverside in partnership with the County of Riverside and the City of Riverside, has graduated its first three companies, each of which has received enough funding to move to the next growth phase.
- Then, the UC Riverside Life Sciences Incubator, the first wet lab incubator in the Inland Empire, welcomed its inaugural tenants.
- The UCR Department of Botany and Plant Sciences boasted the largest group of female National Academy of Sciences members of any single department in the country.
- We unveiled a new look, UCR logo, and Athletics identity.
- UCR Men’s Basketball Coach Mike Magpayo made history by becoming the first Asian American head coach to win a Division I men’s basketball game.
- UCR’s first comprehensive campaign surpassed its goal and raised more than $312 million for students, research, infrastructure, endowed chairs, and programs.
- Dr. Michael V. Drake became the 21st president of the University of California.
- Undergraduate Education launched Campus Collective, a text messaging program designed to connect continuing students with first-year and transfer students in order to create a support network. Students sent nearly 40,000 messages in its first four months.
- UCR’s Writers Week, the longest-running free literary event in California, went virtual and U.S. Poet Laureates Rita Dove, Joy Harjo, and Juan Felipe Herrera received 2021 LA Review of Books (LARb) – UCR Department of Creative Writing Lifetime Achievement Awards.
- In January, UCR Health began administering vaccinations to healthcare workers and patients. Next, they provided vaccines for employees and eventually, for the general public.

RECOGNITION

- UCR was named the No. 1 university for social mobility for the second year in a row by U.S. News & World Report’s 2021 Rankings.
- UCR was named among the top 1 percent of the world’s universities, according to World University Rankings.
- UCR was named the No. 15 public university by Washington Monthly magazine.
- The Urban Institute found that UCR was the only more “selective public” university in the country to provide equal access for Hispanic students, as defined by market demographics.
- UCR was ranked the No. 26 university in the world for plant and animal science by U.S. News and World Report in its 2020 Best Global Universities list.
- Former Highlanders pitcher Joe Kelly helped the Los Angeles Dodgers win the World Series.
- Nalo Hopkinson, a professor of creative writing, was named the 37th Damon Knight Grand Master by the Science Fiction and Fantasy Writers of America, recognizing lifetime achievement in science fiction and/or fantasy.
- Bir Bhanu, Bourns presidential chair and a distinguished professor of electrical and computer engineering, was named a National Academy of Inventors fellow.
- Professor Chandra Reynolds received an $11 million grant to study lifespan behavioral development and cognitive aging, and was elected as a fellow to the Academy of Behavioral Medicine Research.
- The American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS), elected UCR mycologist Jason Stajich to its 2020 class of fellows for his research into the evolution of fungi and other microorganisms.
- Allison Hedge Coke, a distinguished professor of creative writing, received the 2021 George Garrett Award for Outstanding Community Service in Literature from the Association of Writers & Writing Programs (AWP) and was inducted into the Texas Institute of Letters.
- UCR Palm Desert Low-Residency M.F.A. faculty member Stephen Graham Jones won the Los Angeles Times Book Prize for his novel “The Only Good Indians”.
- Assistant Professor of Anthropology Ayana Omilade Flewellen was named by the Explorer’s Club as one of 50 people who are changing the world for her terrestrial and underwater archaeological work uncovering the lives of enslaved people of African descent.
- Laila Lalami, a professor of creative writing, won the 2020 Arab American Book Award for “The Other Americans”.

RESEARCH

- Research grants continued to grow. In fiscal year 2020, UCR set a new record with $197,335,514 from 1,052 grants.
- The National Science Foundation (NSF) awarded a grant to establish the first Engineering Research Center at UCR.
- Eleven UCR faculty members received 2019 NSF CAREER Awards.
- In 2021, Hollis Woodard, an assistant professor of entomology, won an NSF CAREER Award to study the genetic underpinnings of bumblebee queen behavior.
- Yanran Li, assistant professor of chemical and environmental engineering, received a New Innovator Award from the National Institutes of Health's High-Risk, High-Reward Research Program to explore the reengineering of plant immunity for potential medicinal value.
- Ten UCR researchers made the 2020 Highly Cited Researchers list, which recognizes researchers whose influence is demonstrated through the publication of highly cited papers.
- The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation awarded UCR $2.9 million for the "Latinx Futures" project. The grant will support programs within UCR's new Latino and Latin American Studies Research Center.
- The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation also awarded a grant to Alejandra Dubcovsky, an associate professor of history, to study Timucua, an Indigenous language spoken in what is now northern Florida and southern Georgia.
- UCR began leading a new effort with three other UC schools to stop and reverse a worldwide decline in honeybees by studying breeding, medications for bee health, and creation of small devices to "listen" and "smell" inside hives.
- A team led by UCR geologists discovered the first ancestor on the family tree that contains most familiar animals today, including humans.
- UCR won a $10 million grant to develop artificial intelligence that will increase the environmental and economic stability of agriculture in the Western U.S.
- Psychology Professor Rebekah Richert received the largest-ever humanities grant in UCR's history, $10 million from the John Templeton Foundation to study how religion impacts children's world views.
- UCR received $7.5 million to create a Department of Defense Center of Excellence to develop secure, fully networked command, control, and communications infrastructure to enable optimal decision-making.
- UCR PhD graduate Gwen Gardiner published a paper that showed the meaning of happiness varies depending on where in the world a person lives, changing how it should be measured in different locales.
- UCR researchers had a breakthrough study showing the side effects of soybean oil.
- Diogo Ferrari, an assistant professor of political science, published findings that showed a link between education and voting for one's own policy preferences.

GRADUATING WITH HONORS

Undergraduate honors are determined by the colleges. To be eligible for consideration, students must have earned at least 60 units worth of letter-graded UC courses. Honors for summer 2020, fall 2020, and winter 2021 were determined by the grade-point averages of the spring 2020 senior class. Spring 2021 and summer 2021 honors listed in the 2021 Commencement program and announced during the name-reading event will be unofficial. Actual honors for spring 2021 and summer 2021 graduates are not officially determined until grades are posted for the spring 2021 senior class.

UNIVERSITY HONORS

University Honors is designed for students who have shown through their own high achievement that they value intellectual challenges and want to be a part of an innovative, diverse, and stimulating learning community. Students benefit from close interaction with Honors faculty in small class settings and with Honors counselors who provide developmental counseling to help them optimize their educational experience at UCR. High-impact, experiential learning opportunities available to Honors students include: academic internships; service learning opportunities; and faculty-led, co-curricular activities. In addition, University Honors students are supported by a strong peer support system, faculty mentorship, Honors scholarship opportunities, and preparation for prestigious scholarships and awards. These experiences are designed to prepare students for participation in independent, faculty-mentored research that advances knowledge in their discipline, culminating in a capstone project.
